that it is too early and dangerously premature to even consider repatriating the failed asylum seekers to Sri Lanka at this stage.

I would like to take this opportunity to urge you to use your good offices to appraise the respective authorities involved in determining the repatriation of the failed asylum seekers about the present situation and request the authorities to refrain from returning any Tamil asylum seeker at this stage. I also urge you to kindly monitor the situation in Sri Lanka closely and help ease the difficulties facing the Tamil refugees.

I am more than willing to answer any of your queries that may arise from this communication, in writing from Colombo, as I am returning to Colombo in a week's time.

Yours faithfully
